Hi I'm Marc, a multi skilled lead designer with over 16 years experience delivering B2B and B2C creative across multiple channels including brand, product, on-site, social, CRM and marketing.

Experience

Network Gaming - Lead Designer
April 2021 - Present

As the Design Lead at Network Gaming I spearhead product design for a socially responsible gaming startup, dedicated to providing ethical alternatives to traditional gambling. My role includes managing a cross-functional team consisting of a part-time designer and skilled freelancers. Together, we focus on crafting innovative gaming experiences, collaborating closely with global project managers, stakeholders and developers.

Key achievements and projects:

- Transitioned the company to Figma
- Designed and managed components in the design system
- Overhauled the games lobby for improved user experience
- Built prototypes for funding and game development

Experian - Lead Designer
January 2015 - April 2021

Leader Digital Designer for Experian's UK Consumer Services division, delivering creative content across various channels. Promoted to Design Team Lead in 2017, managing a team of three designers.

Key achievements and projects:

- Designed the first CreditExpert iOS/Android app
- Contributed to Experian's global rebrand
- Designed and developed an email template builder for CRM efficiency
- Successfully conducted optimisation tests

Unibet - Digital Designer / Studio Lead
March 2011 - January 2015

Designer for Unibet's in-house design studio where I'd work mainly with the CRM team to produce high quality creative across 27 languages in a fast paced operating environment. I was promoted to Lead Designer in March 2014 to bring in and manage a dedicated team of designers and developers.

Key achievements and projects:

- Led the rebrand of Unibet's poker tournament "Unibet Open"
- Helped develop and roll out Unibet's global rebrand

DeskDemon.com - Freelance Designer
July 2008 - November 2011

I freelanced for DeskDemon creating microsites and HTML emails for the company's global clients including Arcadia, DHL, Marriott, M&S, Nescafe, Rexel and Selfridges. Many of these projects follow strong brand guidelines.

Optimum Fitness Software - Junior Designer
June 2007 - February 2011

I worked as a full-time Designer for OFS to provide websites, software and brand design for the health and fitness industry.
